This series contains files pertaining to UT Upward Bound Program. Upward Bound is a pre-college program for first generation college bound students. It is designed to prepare young people for education beyond high school by providing strong academic, cultural, and social programs to develop the skills, attitudes and motivation necessary for post-secondary education. The program is hosted by the College of Education's Center for Urban Education and has operated since 1965.

The files are arranged alphabetically by subject. Included are reports, correspondence, proposals for grant funds, budget materials, and miscellaneous published items.
