

Blockhouse Head Names Staff

1942 Book To Be Published
In May; To Include Color
Photographs, Beauty Sections

Tentative layout plans and a staff for the 1942 Blockhouse are being announced by Oakley Rogers, editor.

Beatrice Borman has been appointed assistant editor; Weston Gardner, business manager; Lloyd Goon, photographer; Merrill Harrison, associate editor; Philip Luetke, sports editor; Firth Duffey, secretary; and Basil Foussianes, circulation manager.

Editor

Additional staff members will be announced in January. Appointments will be given on the basis of quality and quantity of work. It is expected that the Blockhouse will make its appearance in the middle of May.

Color Pictures Planned

Plans include football pictures of all games, a fashion section in color, a representation of University life including working students, a beauty section and one page for each activity and organization, depending upon its importance.

The book will be 180 pages bound in a cover of blue and gold, T. U. colors. Among the special effects will be duo-graph (brown) engravings and a pebble grain finish paper in the beauty section. Night effects will be achieved in scenic prints with blue ink.

To Choose Queens

Five queens will be chosen, not only for beauty, but for personality and school activity.

Every student, if not pictured, will be mentioned in some respect. Graduate women will be draped for pictures and men will be in dark suits.

The first staff meeting, open to all interested students, will be Friday, Oct. 26, at 10:30 a.m. in the Blockhouse office, Room 220.

Last year's books may be obtained in Room 244 by presenting 1940-41 student activities cards. No books will be handed out after Oct. 1. Hours which the room will be open will be posted.

Wanna Write? Heed Advice Of U. Profs

Aspirants to be short story writers should heed the advice of George F. Evans, associate professor of philosophy, who says that while writing is fun, teaching is more practical.
