
Drop In Enrollment Reported By Registrar

A drop in enrollment this semester over the first semester last year at this time has been reported by Miss Hazel D. Geiner, registrar.

The figures through Monday night showed a drop of 414 students. Thus far 2,289 are registered consisting of 1,761 day session students and 528 evening session students. Last year there was an enrollment of 1,896 day session students and 807 evening session students making a total of 2,703.

Despite this drop the men still outnumber the women nearly two to one.
