

Carlson Says State Aid Best Move Now

Financial Problems Analyzed In Senate

PRESIDENT CARLSON

President William S. Carlson pointed out five alternatives to the TU financial situation in an appearance before Student Senate in the Student Union Lounge on Monday afternoon.

The choices the University faces which do not involve the acquisition of additional funds are limiting the school's enrollment and reducing academic standards by increasing class size and the work load of the faculty, President Carlson pointed out.

The alternatives of acquiring additional revenue for the operation of the University, Presi-this area toward the proposed bill of the Universities of Akron, Cincinnati and Toledo, President Carlson replied that "negative reaction has not discouraged us from going ahead with the other municipal universities to obtain state aid. I don't think we should take a negative atti-