Harold Morgan to Leave Toledo

WILL STUDY MUSIC

May Go Abroad.

Harold Morgan, whose talents as a pianist and whose sunny disposition have made him many friends in this city, is planning to leave Toledo July fourth, not to return for five or six years.

Harold, himself, says it's going to be hard to break away from his home town, but that he wants to acquire as much musical education as he can get.

Ruggles Beach, Oberlin, and Maybe Europe.

This summer he will play at Ruggles Beach. In the fall he enters the Oberlin College of Music, where he will take an advanced course.
There is also possibility that he may go abroad afterwards for further study.

Toledo University students, who feel that they know him especially well, take pride in Morgan's ambition and determination to get somewhere in the musical world, and will follow with interest his steps up the ladder. With such a splendid start as Morgan has, there is no reason why there should not be an unusual career before him.

Morgan's Orchestra to Play for Last time at Farewell Happy Hop.

Harold Morgan's own every mana-star orchestra will make its final appearance at the Farewell Happy Hop, which will take place at the

No School Tuesday, June 3 University Picnic

Sugar Island Excursion Instead of Books.

No classes will be held on Tuesday, June 3, on account of the University picnic at Sugar Island. Instead of reporting at school at 8:00 o'clock, be at the White Star Line dock at 8:30
a. m.

Afternoon and evening classes, which would otherwise meet on June 3, will hold their last meeting on Tuesday, May 27.

There will be many forms of recreation and amusement. The annual baseball game between the faculty and students will be staged at 1:30 sharp. Get into the game and take a shot at your professors. "Doc" Mawer, our whirlwind slabster, will again attempt to remove Prof.
Nurse's head from his shoulders.
Prof. Nurse has been advised to supply himself with a helmet. Prof.

Whiteford will try to scare the variety with his fast, speedy ones.

Baseball will not be the only recreation. Dancing and swimming (?) have been added to the program. The committee is arranging for the best dance music. Dancing going, coming, and on the Island.

Get your tickets early as the supply is limited. Round trip 75 cents.
Everybody is invited. Come and bring your friends.

FRESHIES WILL FROLIC FRIDAY

FREE DANCE TO ALL UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Seniors to Be Guests of Honor.

The first annual prom, given by the Freshmen in honor of the Seniors, will be next Friday evening at the University auditorium. It is free, not only to Seniors, but also to all university students.

The freshies promise all an extra-free, so we know everybody will be there to trip the light fantastic toe and shake the festive sock.
