Hello Everyone.

Monday.

Well we came out here this morning at one o'clock. It was nice out today and we didn't have to do too much. We just set our tents and dug over fox holes. Don't know whether I'll be able to write very much or not. We will ~~do~~ have more to do the rest of the time. We are all here on the side of the mountain. Well it's not what you would call a mountain, but

Its big enough to be one. How is everyone. I wrote to Granddad the other day.

Well said know of any more to write so will close for now.

So Long for now,
Billie,
