Dear Mom + Bee.

I thought I'd drop you a line and see how you all were coming. I am okay and hope you all the same. Haven't got any mail for a while and don't suppose I will for at least a month. I will have to send these letters all at once. I don't know my full address yet so I will have to wait until I get that. You will probably know what island that I'm on by my address.

I have isn't much to write about and what there is they won't let you tell. I guess I'll close for this time. I have to go down to the mines and clean up a little.

So long for now.

Love, Billie
