Dear Mom & Bill,

Wisconsin

Thought I would drop you a few lines again today. I guess they have stopped censoring mail so it doesn't matter what we said. We are still guarding prisoners. There are more Jap civilians than soldiers. Most of them are in pretty bad shape because of lack of food and medical supplies. Some of them are so weak they can hardly get around. We have two or three trucks here that go out and get them in groups so we can bring them in. There are a lot of small children. About ~~thirty~~ ~~four~~ ~~five~~ ~~or~~ ~~six~~ ~~back~~ ~~and~~ three or more following here. You see little kids about the size of Jerry carrying bags of these personal things. What are so big ~~as the~~ ~~is~~ ~~one~~ ~~here~~
