

Sixteen Ways to Kill Quota

1. Don't attend meetings. If you do, arrive late.
2. Be sure to leave before the meeting is over.
3. Never have anything to say at meetings; wait until you get outside.
4. When at meetings, vote to do everything, then go home and do nothing.
5. The next day, find fault with your officers.
6. Take no part in the Quota's affairs.
7. Be sure and sit in the back so you can talk things over with another member. Nobody will notice.
8. Get all that Quota will give; but give nothing in return.
9. Never ask anyone to join the members in promoting good fellowship.
10. Talk cooperation, but never cooperate.
11. Threaten to leave Quota if anything isn't the way you want it.
12. If asked to help, always say you haven't time.
13. Never read you newsletters. You might find out what is going on.
14. Never accept any office or serve on a committee. It is much easier to criticize than to do things.
15. If appointed to a committee, never give any time to it; let the Chairman do it all.
16. Don't do anything more than you have to do, and when others willingly and unselfishly use their ability to help the cause, howl because Quota is being run by a clique.
