FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

Ward M. Canaday (4455 Brookside Rd.) has been re-elected president of The Friends of The University of Toledo Libraries, according to Lucille B. Emch, executive secretary of the organization and associate director for rare books, special collections and archives of the University Libraries.

Mr. Canaday's re-election came at a meeting of the executive committee of the Friends held in the University's William S. Carlson Library on Thursday, March 27. Mr. Canaday has served in this capacity since 1937. He also is a former member (1953-1967) of The University of Toledo's municipal Board of Directors.

Also re-elected at the meeting were Mrs. Harry M. Parke, vice president; Richard B. Swartzbaugh, secretary; and Theodore R. Vogt, treasurer.

Re-elected members of the executive committee were Mrs. Louise Bruner, Mrs. JoAnn Cousino, Mrs. Leo V. Cunningham, Mrs. Richard E. Gillham. Ernest R. Koppel, Paul E. Rieger, Jack W. Shaffer and Alan Hogan, acting director of the University Libraries.
