

SUBSTITUTE'S FIELD GOAL WINS GAME FOR MOTOR CITY TEAM

Putting Dual Ends When Dobbin Kicks Spontaneous Goal In Last Eight Seconds of Play; Detroit Uses Punting Attack to Gain Ground

The University of Toledo Rockets suffered defeat at the hands of Detroit City College last Saturday afternoon, 13 to 0. The contest, which was littered throughout with punting, was the first of the season. The Motor City team, coached by Coach Dobbin, was led by its star end, Dickie, who kicked a field goal in the last eight seconds of play.

SPORTS OBSERVER

After one opening kick, the first half developed into a punting duel between Will and Fitzgerald. Will had a slight edge over the Detroit side in punting. The ball remained in the middle of the field for the greatest part of the first two quarters, but later fell into the hands of the Rockets. The game was a punting duel between Will and Fitzgerald.
