WELL, it's like this. Back in the old days, when men wore high hats and frock coats, they had plenty of time to think things out, and they had sense, too. They used to sit down on a log, and take the time to whittle their tobacco from plug, to be sure of having a cool smoke.

"In those days, a man named Wellman, right here in Quincy, Ill., made about the best tobacco you could get. He knew how to keep the flavor fine and mellow.

"Well, sir, the people who make this Granger Rough Cut acquired Mr. Wellman's method, and they must have known how the old boys used to whittle their tobacco to make it smoke cool. Yes, sir, this Granger is the real stuff. The same mellowness and fine flavor that Wellman used to hand out to his friends. And it's whittled into big shaggy flakes all ready for the pipe. 'Rough Cut' they call it—'cut rough to smoke cool' is the best way I can describe it.

"Regardless of price, Granger is about the best pipe tobacco ever smoked. That's why I smoke it, and that's why they call it America's 'Tohacco,' sir."

Now we wanted to sell Granger for 10c. It was just a question of how to do it for the price. So we pack Granger in a sensible foil pouch instead of an expensive tin—knowing that a man can't see the tin, but he can see the pouch. We give smokers this good
