

When Author Meets Author

TWO TOLEDO AUTHORS conferred yesterday afternoon at the autograph party given by the Spitzer Book Shop to mark the publication of Jean Gould's newest book in her series of autobiographical stories for teen-age girls, "Jane." Here Miss Gould just has finished signing a book for Isabel Scott Rorick, author of the widely-read "Mr. and Mrs. Cugat." "Jane," a story about Jane Austen, is the second book in Miss Gould's series. The first was "Miss Emily," the subject of which was Emily Dickenson.
