

AN OVERLOOKED TREASURE

HIRE DISABLED PEOPLE

Kelly Boyle, Idaho Falls, Idaho
President's Committee on
Employment of the Handicapped

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

NATIONAL EMPLOY THE HANDICAPPED WEEK SEMINAR

Friday, October 18, 1985
HCH Building, Room 6043
10:30 A.M.

Hugh G. Gallagher, noted author and public affairs consultant will discuss: "The Unheralded Disability Policies of Herbert H. Hoover"

Hugh G. Gallagher, noted author and public affairs advisor is currently under a long term contract with G. P. Putnam's Sons to produce a biography of Herbert Hoover. His most recent work, "FDR's Splendid Deception", a psychological study, was published by Dodd, Mead in the Spring of 1985.

Mr. Gallagher's lecture will highlight some little known facts about the presidencies of Herbert H. Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

* Sign language interpreters will be provided upon request. At least 2 days notice is required. To make arrangements, contact Allene D. Gillam on 377-5691 TTD.

All employees are welcome and encouraged to attend.
For further information contact: Allene D. Gillam, 377-5691.