COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

November 26, 1962

To whom it may concern:

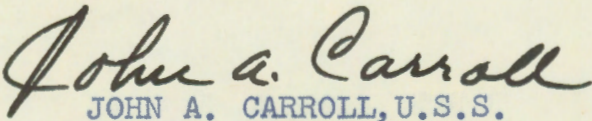

Hugh Gallagher has been my Legislative Assistant for three years and I am happy and privileged to recommend him highly. While he was with me, Hugh was responsible for - or supervised - the research and much of the writing in the statements which I made in Committee and on the Senate floor.

Hugh is a man of sincere and intelligent conviction and reflects a happy blending of enthusiasm, understanding, and dedicated ability. He has been directly responsible for legislative staff work in a wide range of complicated and important programs and subjects and he has never once failed me. He has my full trust and has had great freedom and responsibility for independent action and judgment -- this he has always exercised wisely.

Personally, Hugh possesses an engaging personality, is a tireless worker, and highly respected and well-liked by his associates.

I have no doubt that he would be a tremendous asset to any staff and that he would competently and efficiently perform the duties of any position for which he is qualified by reason of his fine education, training and experience.

Sincerely,

JOHN A. CARROLL, U.S.S.
