

January 6th, 1927.

Mr. Charles V. Truax,
Director of Agriculture,
Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Truax:

Mr. Harry Pomeroy has called at my office and states that a report was sent to you that he had been arrested and placed in Court in this city for being intoxicated. I have known Mr. Pomeroy for a number of years and wish to advise you that we have no record of his arrest here. I have investigated and can safely say there is no record on our books against him in any way.

Respectfully,

HJ/S

Chief of Police.
