

June 21, 1927.

Mr. Thomas Hickey.
676 Wrigley Bldg..
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Mr. Hickey:

A very personal friend of mine, William Ragan, a well known umpire, umpired in the Cotton State League for some time, and, on account of illness in his family, was compelled to resign and return home. He is now without employment. I am writing to you to see whether or not you could assist him in gaining a position. If you can be of any assistance to Mr. Ragan, it would certainly be appreciated by the undersigned.

Respectfully,

HJ/S

Chief of Police.