J.R.Cowell, Director of Public Safety,
Toledo,
Ohio

Dear Sir:-

My counsel has just advised me that you have completed any investigation that you intend to make of the affairs of the Department of Police. I have refrained from addressing you until you had made such investigation as you desired.

I have also been informed that some question has been raised as to the particular Section of the Charter applicable to the Chief of Police. Therefore, to remove all doubt, you may treat this letter as an abandonment of the office of Chief, effective as of midnight, December 31, 1927.

With kindest regards and best wishes for a successful tenure of office.

Respectfully Yours,
