COMMISSIONER

April 16, 1923.

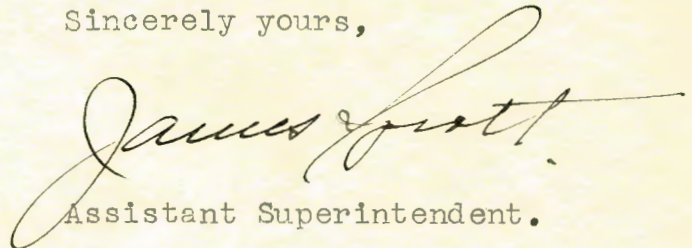

Mr. Harry Jennings,
Chief of Police,
Toledo, Ohio.

My dear Chief:

I wish to take this opportunity to express, in behalf of all of the boys who visited your city last Thursday, the utmost appreciation for the very kind hospitality shown us. I am sure that nobody will soon forget this trip to Toledo.

Will you please express our hearty thanks to all of your men, and looking forward to another visit from your Department, I am, with kind regards

Sincerely yours,

Assistant Superintendent.
