

Courtesy Code is Devised by Police for "Fair Week"

"Make the State Fair visitors think well of Columbus," were the words of Police Chief Harry E. Franch, to his department Saturday.

Here are some of the words of advice given them to guide their duties during the coming week:

"Be kind and courteous and make our guests feel at home. ✓

"Do your utmost to prevent accidents and injury to persons or loss of property.

" 'Sell' Columbus to our visitors; help them to enjoy the Fair. ✓

"Do all you can to create a kindly and friendly feeling for our splendid city.

"Help stimulate business for our merchants by being courteous to the State Fair shoppers.

"Do not be technical in enforcing traffic regulations.

"Make our guests glad that they came, and sorry that they are forced to leave us. ✓

"We have a national reputation as a courteous police department. Let each policeman live up to that reputation, as it will do much for our city."
