

July 9th, 1926.

R. I. Miles, Secretary,
The National Detective Bureau Co.,
Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Miles:

I have your favor of the 8th instant and regret to advise that it is too late now to change the date of the Ohio Police Chiefs Convention which is to be held in Toledo August 17th, 18th and 19th, because the hotel reservations have been made, the official program is now in the press carrying advertisements from a number of local concerns, the souvenirs have been ordered, music reserved and all plans are made. I am sorry this date conflicts with that of the Convention at Los Angeles for it will, no doubt, decrease our attendance quite a bit.

With kind regards and wishing you a very enjoyable trip if you go to the Coast, I am

Yours very truly,

Chief of Police.

HJ/S