

February 2, 1927.

William Poalson,
Chief of Police,
Kenmore, Ohio.

Dear Poalson:

Of course I remember you.
We couldn't well forget the "Singing Chief" after all he did to help make our Convention a merry one.

We get all our uniforms and overcoats etc., from Fechheimer Bros. Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, and have found them to be very satisfactory and a good firm to deal with. They also make the blouses for our motorcycle men.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

HJ/S

Chief of Police.
