

September 28, 1927.

Thos. O'Brien,
Chief of Police,
Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Dear Chief:

I have your favor of the 27th instant with reference to the coming games and am happy to inform you that we will be delighted to take care of you as we have in the past. Drop me a line about a week in advance of each game and if you need more men than other years, say so.

I am writing to Harry Tillotson for tickets for the Michigan-Ohio State game.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

HJ/S

Chief of Police.