

From University of Toledo News Bureau
Sept. 26, 1949

Geo-political factors and their relation to the Great Powers will be discussed by President Wilbur W. White at 8:20 p.m. Wednesday in room 442 at the University of Toledo.

The lecture is the second in a course in international politics, which will meet weekly through the fall semester. It is offered for 2 hours' credit in political science or for auditors at the regular fee, but is free of charge to occasional visitors.

##