Dr. William S. Carlson took over his duties as tenth president of the University of Toledo this week, succeeding Dr. Asa S. Knowles, who has been Chief executive at TU since 1951.

Dr. Carlson will address new students and their parents at a reception in the Field House at 8 p.m. Sunday to mark the start of Freshman Week preceding the opening of the semester on Sept. 15.

The new president is a native of Michigan and was educated at the University of Michigan. He has been president of the University of Vermont, the University of Delaware and the State University of New York.

Dr. Knowles will become president of Northeastern University in Boston where he was a former faculty member and dean.
