Dr. William S. Carlson, president of the University of Toledo, has been elected president of the institution's Research Foundation. He is the first TU president to hold this position since the Foundation was organized in 1946. Executive director is Dr. Archie N. Solberg, dean of research at the university.

Dr. Carlson recently was elected president of the Greater Toledo Educational Television Foundation, Inc. The Toledo TV station, WTGE-TV, is expected to begin broadcasting soon on channel 30.
