

FROM Public Relations Office
The University of Toledo

May 20, 1959

TO

B-T Radio-TV

Seven graduates of the management development program at the University of Toledo will receive certificates on Wednesday, May 27.

Making the presentation following a dinner at 6:30 in the TU dining room, will be President William S. Carlson. Robert Bressler, manager of industrial relations of the Doehler-Jarvis Division of the National Lead Co., is the speaker.

The graduates of the evening program which began last October are: Keith R. Aldridge, general foreman, Doehler-Jarvis; George W. Baer, plant superintendent, Mather Spring Company; Norman L. Bandrevics, manager, The Lutheran Book Shop; Rawson Davis, assistant superintendent, Doehler-Jarvis; Richard E. Dorsay, resident auditor, Auditor General, USAF; Bernard M. VanSavage, assistant general manager, Nicholson Concrete Company; John A. Wagner, assistant secretary and treasurer, Sptizer Rorick Trust and Savings Bank.

Special guests of the graduates will be John Thees, general production manager, Doehler-Jarvis; Mr. Philip Hendrickson, vice president, Mather Spring and Mr. William Barney, plant manager, Mather Spring; Rev. Leon N. Zahn, executive director, Lutheran Welfare Service; Kenneth Koegler, plant # 2 manager, Doehler-Jarvis; R.P. Powers, vice president, Continental Aviation & Engineering Corporation; James A. Nicholson, president, Nicholson Concrete Company; Horton C. Rorick, vice president, The Ohio Citizens Trust Company.

Dr. Ralph C. Kendall, dean of adult and continuing education, will be master of ceremonies.

##