FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The University of Toledo chapter of Alpha Phi Delta, international premedical honorary, will be hosts to delegates from 73 other chapters in the United States and Canada next weekend for the 14th national convention of the organization.

Some 250 students and educators are expected to attend the three-day convention, which includes business sessions, a convention banquet and a tour of Toledo's hospitals.

Dr. William Neal Hubbard, Jr., dean of the University of Michigan Medical School will address the delegates at the banquet Friday evening. Dr. Hubbard will discuss "The Changing Role of the Physician."

TU President William S. Carlson, AED Faculty Adviser Archie N. Solberg and Margaret Keating, TU chapter president, will speak at the opening session Thursday, April 26, at 9:00 a.m.
