

FROM University Relations
The University of Toledo

Jerry L. Morrow
531-1451, Ext. 214

October 30, 1964

FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

The University of Toledo Reserve Officers' Training Corps will hold its annual President's Review on Wednesday (Nov, 4) at noon on TU's front campus.* The annual review, in which all 500 TU ROTC cadets and the ROTC's 11 coed sponsors take part, is in honor of Dr. William S. Carlson, TU president,

A total of 15 senior ROTC cadets will receive awards at the review for academic achievement, military leadership on the ROTC program and performance during the past summer at the six-week ROTC summer camp at Indiantown Gap Military Reservation.

Parents of the 15 seniors who are to receive awards will be guests at the review. Named to receive Distinguished Military Student badges and certificates are; Richard E. Amstutz, Thomas J. Getz, Franklin R. Lehman, Robert J. O'Haver, William E. Schultz, Darrell E. Stevens, Richard B. VanLandingham, John J. Weglian and Victor G. Zarichny, all of Toledo; William J. Drenser, Cleveland; Lawrence E. French, Park Ridge, Ill.; James H. Gray, White Plains, N.Y.; John R. Hutchinson, Camden, N.Y.; Richard A. Krajcik, North Olmsted, Ohio; and John E. Tumas, Pittsburgh, Pa.

An ROTC open house in the ROTC Armory will follow the review.

*(In case of inclement weather the review will be held in TU's Field House.)