

FROM University Relations
The University of Toledo

Jerry L. Morrow
531-1451, Ext. 214

June 8, 1965

FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

Commencement ceremonies for the University of Toledo's 82nd academic year will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday (June 10) in the TU Field House. Dr. William S. Carlson, TU president, will deliver the commencement address.

Two Toledo area persons will be awarded honorary degrees. Named to receive the honorary Doctor of Humanities degree is Mrs. Duane Stranahan, community leader and humanitarian. John W. Snyder, former U.S. Secretary of the Treasury, will receive the honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Also to be given special recognition are three TU graduate students selected by the University's Graduate School Activities Committee to receive the first TU Graduate School Outstanding Scholarship Awards. They are: Donald R. Forritter (Euclid, Ohio), a graduate student in the College of Business Administration; Mary Ann Heinrichs, 3335 Aldringham, College of Education; and Melvin A. Rode (Delphos, Ohio), College of Engineering.

Approximately 757 persons are candidates for degrees, ranging from the two year associate degree to the doctor's degree. Candidates for the doctor of education degree are Luther L. Haseley, William R. Johnston and (Mrs.) Beverly V. Robinson.

TU will also confer 15 degrees to law school graduates. The doctor of jurisprudence degree will be presented at commencement for the first time since the Ohio Board of Regents approved awarding of the degree last year.

There are 140 master's degree candidates; 531 bachelor's degree

(more)

commencement -2-2-2-2

candidates; seven associate degree candidates in the College of Business Administration; and 61 associate degree candidates in the Community and Technical College.

A total of 41 students will graduate with honors: four, summa cum laude; nine, magna cum laude; and 28, cum laude.

During the commencement program, commissions as second lieutenants in the U.S. Army Reserve will be awarded to 14 University of Toledo ROTC cadets.

Colonel Arthur J. DeLuca, professor of military science at TU, will administer the oath of office to the graduating seniors, and President Carlson will present the commissions.