FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

Some 236 persons will receive degrees during Summer commencement ceremonies at The University of Toledo Monday (August 30) at 8 p.m. in the TU Field House. Dr. William S. Carlson, TU president, will deliver the commencement address.

The Honorable John W. Potter, mayor of Toledo, will attend the ceremonies to bring greetings from the city and to administer the service pledge to the graduates.

The doctor of philosophy degree will be awarded for the second time at a TU commencement. The four candidates for this degree are: Jerry L. Gallentine, 2619 Strauss Avenue; E. Thomas Henkel, 4923 Devonshire; Edward W. Kleppinger, 9220 Dorr Street (Holland, Ohio); and Thomas J. Ten Hoeve, Jr., 1816 Cone Street. The first PhD degree was awarded at TU in August, 1964 to William L. Hoover.

A sixth year certificate in educational administration, the first to be earned at TU, will be awarded to Mrs. Alice W. Holt, 1201 Anderson (Maumee, Ohio). This certificate requires approximately 60 hours of work beyond the bachelor's degree or one year beyond the master's degree and qualifies the recipient for major administrative positions in public and private schools.

The doctor of jurisprudence degree will be presented to three law school graduates. This degree was first awarded at commencement ceremonies last June after it was approved by the Ohio Board of Regents.

There are 89 master's degree candidates; 133 bachelor's degree candidates; and six associate degree candidates in the University Community and Technical College.

A total of nine students will graduate with honors; two, summa cum laude; two, magna cum laude; four, cum laude; and one, high scholarship in the University Community and Technical College.
