FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

Recipients of The University of Toledo's 1966 Outstanding Teacher Awards will be honored at a dinner meeting of the TU chapter of the American Association of University Professors to be held on Friday (Nov. 11) at 6:30 p.m. at the Tivoli Restaurant (5060 Monroe St.).

The award winners, announced earlier this year, are: Edward Ebert, associate professor of mathematics; Dr. Noel Leathers, associate professor of history; Dr. Herbert Sandberg, associate professor of education; and Harold Shaffer, assistant professor of biology.

Dr. William S. Carlson, TU president, will speak on recent developments in the plans for higher education in Ohio. Dr. Margaret Zaugg, chapter vice president, is program chairman.
