

FROM University Relations
The University of Toledo

Jerry L. Morrow
531-5711, Ext. 675

January 26, 1967

FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

A total of <sup>305</sup>309 persons received degrees today(Thursday, Jan. 26, 1967) at mid-year commencement ceremonies at The University of Toledo. Honorary doctor of laws degrees were awarded to Ohio Governor James A. Rhodes and Lawrence N. Steinberg, labor union leader. John D. Biggers, who is leaving the TU Board of Directors after having served since 1957, was presented a citation for his service to TU and was named a Director Emeritus.

Dr. William S. Carlson, TU president, delivered the commencement address, and discussed recent debate on, and suggestions for changing, the Selective Service Act (summary of speech attached).

TU also holds commencement ceremonies in June, at the end of the regular academic year, and in August, at the end of the summer session.