FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

A total of 70 Toledo and area men will receive certificates at a dinner program on Monday (April 24) for completing a two-year program in Industrial Education for Men of Northwestern Ohio Industry which is conducted by The University of Toledo's Division of Adult and Continuing Education.

The industrial education program includes the study of the fundamentals of plant operation and supervision. Monday's graduation program will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the north lounge of the TU Student Union.

Dr. William C. Huffman, dean of University College at the University of Louisville, will be the principal speaker. Also participating in the program are: Dr. William S. Carlson, TU president; Monsignor Michael J. Doyle, chairman of the Toledo Labor-Management-Citizens Committee and a member of the Industrial Education Advisory Committee; Jerome Gross, director of the Labor-Management-Citizens Committee and coordinator of industrial education at TU; and, Joe D. Dawson, assistant to the dean of adult and continuing education at TU.

Dr. John L. Mason, dean of the TU College of Business Administration, will present the certificates.

A complete list of graduates is attached.
