FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

One thousand University of Toledo alumni are expected Sunday, March 3, in the UT Field House for the kickoff of the alumni and friends division of the Centennial Fund Campaign.

John F. Savage, chairman of the alumni division and a UT trustee will be master of ceremonies. He will introduce UT President Glen R. Driscoll and Edward C. Schmakel, director of alumni relations.

The Dancing Rock-ets, the UT Jazz Lab Band and University cheerleaders will entertain.

The 1,000 workers are being recruited by 200 team captains, who in turn were enlisted by 20 alumni cabinet members.

"We're looking forward to a tremendously successful alumni campaign. We are told that getting 1,000 alumni together as we plan on Sunday will be a national first in fund development enterprise," Mr. Savage said.

Goal of the group is to make 10,000 contacts with alumni.
