The appointment of Christine M. Feiock of Waterville (Second Street) as assistant to the president of The University of Toledo has been approved by the UT Board of Trustees.

Miss Feiock's responsibilities as assistant to President Glen R. Driscoll include preparation of institutional regulations, administrative investigation, representing the Office of the President, and liaison with other offices and individuals. A significant portion of her time will be spent in governmental relations.

Miss Feiock, who succeeds Larry Snavley, formerly was a market development specialist at Owens-Illinois Inc. She also served as an international market analyst and public affairs specialist at O-I.

A graduate of Libbey High School, she received the bachelor of business administration degree from UT in 1965 and the master of business administration degree, also from UT, in 1972.

Miss Feiock is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William L. Wallbank of Toledo.
