

Medical College Unit Incorporated To Study Feasibility Of Toledo School

A nonprofit corporation charter has been granted by Ted W. Brown, Ohio secretary of state, to the Toledo Area Medical College and Education Foundation. Mr. Brown reported today.

Purpose of the foundation is to study the feasibility of the establishment of a medical school in Toledo.

Listed as initial trustees are Dr. Frank F. A. Rawling, Dr. Maurice A. Schnitker, Mayor Damas, Wilson L. Benfer, administrator of Toledo Hospital; Dr. Edward L. Burns, Ward M. Canaday, president of the Overland Corp.; William S. Carlson, president of the University of Toledo.

James Slater Gibson, attorney and statutory agent for the foundation; Dr. Saul Kelson of the UAW Diagnostic Clinic; Msgr. Robert A. Maher, director of Catholic hospitals; Dr. Byron G. Shaffer, John D. Willey, assistant to the publisher of The Blade, and Dr. Gregor Sido.