Medical Group Names Officers

Advisory Board Gets New Members

Officers of the advisory board of the Northwestern Ohio Regional Medical Program were re-elected at the annual meeting Wednesday night in Bowling Green.

Officers who have served during the last year under a planning grant from the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare are:

Dr. William T. Collins, of Lima, chairman; Dr. Brian K. Bradford, of Toledo, vice chairman; Dr. Herman W. Reas, of Toledo, recording secretary; Sister Mary Verona, of Toledo, corresponding secretary, and Frank J. Kinn, of Sandusky, fiscal officer.

New members elected to the advisory group, which is divided into geographical districts, are:

Northeast, Dr. Patrick Hughes, of Port Clinton; Dr. Arthur Groskost, of Sandusky, and William Aigler, of Bellevue.

Northwest, Dr. Robert Southworth, of Defiance; Dr. Neil T. Levenson, of Bryan; Mrs. Peggy Stick, of Defiance, and David Ruffer, Defiance College.

Southwest, Dr. Alfred C. Diller, of Convoy, and Gordon Smith, of Lima.

Central, Wilson Benfer, of Toledo; Dr. Marion Anderson, of Toledo, and Charles Penn, of Toledo.

Under the direction of Dr. C. Robert Tittle, coordinator and member of the faculty of the new Medical College of Ohio, a group of specialists in the fields of heart disease, cancer, stroke, and related diseases is preparing a broad program for education, research, training, and demonstration in those fields.
