

Sketch Of First Building To Be Erected For The Medical College Of Ohio

This is an architect's model of the Health, Sciences, Teaching, and Laboratories Building that will be the first structure on the future campus of the Medical College of Ohio. College trustees Wednesday disclosed extensive plans for the campus on Arlington Avenue. In the first class of 32 students, beginning Monday, there will be 10 Toledoans.