The University of Toledo welcomes its tenth president Tuesday (Sept. 2) when Dr. William S. Carlson takes over his administrative duties.

A native of Michigan, and educated at the University of Michigan, he has been president of the University of Vermont, the University of Delaware and the State University of New York.

Dr. Carlson succeeds Dr. Asa S. Knowles, who will become president of Northeastern University in Boston. Dr. Knowles has been at the University of Toledo since February, 1951.
