Dear Mom & All, Dumas.

Thought I would drop you a few lines again today. Everything with me is the same as it was. I am still not transferred. They said something about the div. being delayed so maybe we will stay with it a while longer.

We haven't had any mail call the last couple days. Probably will today though. I wrote Granddad a letter yesterday. I believe I told you that I had a letter from Bob & he said they were leaving the 8th. His mail only took about 2 days to get here. I suppose Guy is in Japan by now or wasn't that where he was going.

Have you found any films yet. I suppose they are pretty hard to get.

How is the weather there.
I suppose it has cooled
~~to~~ by now. We had a little rain last nite but it didn't cool it off much.
Its still hot & dry.

There isn't much news
to say so think I close for this time.

So long for now.
Love, Billie
