

Ed Sullivan Program To Feature Choristers

Sunderman Lists Schedule For Annual Eastern Tour

Dr. Lloyd Sunderman will direct the University Rocket Choristers during their eastern tour, Jan. 29 through Feb. 7, which includes a national appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show Sunday night, Feb. 2.

The forty-five choristers, 28 women and 17 men, will begin their concert tour at the Pilgrim Congregational Church, Cleveland, Ohio, then onto the Second Christian Church, Warren, O., Jan. 30; Grove City Joint Consolidated School, Grove City, Pa.; Jan. 31; Ed Sullivan Show, Feb. 2; Columbia High School, Maple-the Choristers will be wearing new ensembles. The women's outfits are plain black wool-jersey sheath dresses that have three-quarter length sleeves with a pink satin neck scarf and pearl accessories. Pink linen dinner jackets, the usual black bow tie, black cummerbund, and black trousers will be the apparel of the male Choristers.

The University Rocket Choristers, upon their return to Toledo, will give a concert at the University of Toledo on Feb. 16 in the Doermann Theater.

DR. SUNDERMAN
Directs Choristers

Second Annual Institute Features Eugenia Anderson

"My Neighbor and I in Today's World" will be the subject of the keynote address to be given by Mrs. Eugenia Anderson at Toledo's Second Women's Institute on Human Relations. This program will be held Tuesday, Jan. 28 in the Doermann Theater.

Mrs. Anderson is the former United States Ambassador to Denmark and national vice-