

The Volunteers of America,
"Stepping Stone."
814 Summit Street,
Toledo, Ohio,
Oct. 22, 1926.

Harry Jennings,
Chief of Police,
Safety Bldg.,
Toledo, Ohio.

Dear Friend:

The first meeting of The Advisory Board, of The Toledo Stepping Stone will be held on Monday, November 1st, at the headquarters of The Volunteers of America, 814 Summit Street. The meeting will convene at 2:15 P. M. and will adjourn not later than 3:15 P. M. Lunch will be served in the building.

Reports of the last six months will be presented. Plans for the future will be considered. We hope very much that you will be present.

General Ballington Booth founder and President of this movement expects to meet with the Board. We are fortunate to have our General present with us and assure you of a genuine pleasure in meeting him.

You cannot afford to miss this meeting. Please phone Adams 0502 and assure us of your coming.

Yours in service,

Capt. H. Mills Cook

Commanding Officer.

HME/CE