

September 30th, 1926.

Thomas O'Brien,
Chief of Police,
Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Dear Chief:

I have your letter of the 29th and assure you that we stand ready to assist you this year as we have in the past. All the information I want is for what big games you will need the officers and I will arrange for them to be there as before.

In reference to tickets, I would like to have five tickets for the Illinois game and five for the Wisconsin game and, if possible, I would like five tickets for the Ohio State game at Columbus. If you can arrange to purchase these tickets for me in a good location in the stand, I would be pleased to have you do so.

Please advise me what you can do in the matter, also for what games you will need the men.

Yours very truly,

HJ/S

Chief of Police.
