University of Toledo President William S. Carlson will head a discussion session at the Michigan Conference on International Development at the University of Michigan May 15 - 17.

Paul G. Hoffman, director of the United Nations Special Fund, and four foreign ambassadors are among those scheduled to discuss economic relations between the United States and countries receiving foreign aid.

Sponsored and arranged by the University of Michigan, Michigan State University and Wayne State University, the conference is an official event of Michigan Week.

Tuesday afternoon (May 17) President Carlson will chair a session on "How Economic Aid Looks to Recipient Nations." Speakers will be Ambassador B.K. Nehru, commissioner general for Economic Affairs, India, and Ambassador Avraham Harman of Israel.
