Dear Mom + All, May 13, 1945

I am fine and hope you all are the same. Everything here is about the same as it was. Just finished writing to Tom. Today is Mothers day here but not there yet. We are a day ahead of your time I guess. Am glad that pin got there okay. That was for Mothers day.

Have you been hearing from Guy + Tom. Have you heard about that point system in the Army. I guess the more points you have the quicker you get out. I think if you have 84 or something like that you can get you know I would like out. I guess its no use even counting mine I would only have 6 or 7. I am still with Bob but dont think I will be long.

School is probably almost out by now. How is the weather been lately. Is it any better than it was.
Have you got your garden and things planted yet. How are you coming with your chickens. I believe you said you were going to get them the 10th.

Will close for this time.

So long for now
Love, Billie
