

Sept. 20, 1926.

Arthur D. Hill, Director.

Dear Sir:-

Captain Thomas O'Reilly has had charge of the Traffic Division for the past four and one-half years and has been instrumental in bringing the Traffic Department to what it is today.

Captain O'Reilly started the Division with one office assistant and two men in the Sign Shop and has given all traffic questions his personal attention, and I believe Captain O'Reilly is worthy of a promotion ranking the same as Inspector.

I wish at this time to recommend that a Traffic Division be established by the Honorable Council and Captain O'Reilly be given a title to rank the same as the Inspector and given the same pay as Inspector of Police and Detectives.

Hoping you will give this matter your consideration, I am,

Respectfully yours,

Chief of Police.
