

Collegian Comrades in Crime

Jean Douglas, editor, their girl Friday.

Kathy Rudolph, business manager, getting Collegians ready to mail to men in service.

The noise of typewriters running at full speed and the rumble of conversation heard late at night on the 200 level on Tuesdays usually means that the Campus Collegian deadline is on the way to being met.

The staff, composed chiefly of women this year, can be found in the office at almost any time of the day or night during the first three days of each week. The job of writing copy, headlines, editing, making-up (mostly making-

Back row—Left to right: Villwock, P. Diehl, Penske, Rudolph, Dick, McDermott, Herrmann, M. Meyer. Row four—D. Mueller, MacDonald, Eggleston, Roulet, Sell, Bogdanski, W. Racker, Poindexter, Harbaugh. Row three—Abood, M. Nightingale, Gilmartin, Allyn, B. Miller, Jay, H. Fulton, Hotchkiss, Korecki. Row two—Halpin, Lobdell, Burke, J. Muntz, Fogg, Mack, Dale, Gogel, A. Brown. Front row—Kirk, Gigandet, Shanteau, Scheidler, J. Douglas, Hammon-tree, Jencks, Joanne Smith.