FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

University of Toledo President Glen R. Driscoll has been elected to a five-year term as a general trustee of the Toledo Museum of Art.

As a general trustee, Dr. Driscoll said he will participate in such Museum Board activities as advising and counseling on museum matters and raising public and private funds for museum operations.

He said the Museum Board schedules quarterly meetings and may arrange special meetings when necessary.

Dr. Driscoll said one reason he accepted the Board position was because of University interests in the Toledo Museum of Art through general fund investments for UT's art education program, and location of art instructors at the Museum.

In addition, Dr. Driscoll said he will serve on the board because "I think the Art Museum is one of the finest assets the City of Toledo has."
